Chester and Timmis use the book of 1 Peter to offer practical ways that the church can be the everyday church to be on mission 24/7. This everyday mission includes being in the community the church is called to be and not just on the weekends. Also to be caring for one another which to be in pastoral care for one another even when we do not have a pastor title in the church. All members in the church have a pastoral ministry of some form or fashion.
