The White Mans Burden Why

The White Man's Burden: The United States and the Philippine Islands, by Rudyard Kipling, is a poem about the Philippine-American War, which exhorts the United States to assume colonial control of the Filipino people and their country. Kipling originally wrote the poem to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria, but it was replaced with the sombre poem "Recessional", also a Kipling work about empire. He rewrote "The White Man's Burden" to encourage American colonisation and ...

The White Man's Burden - Wikipedia

"The White Man's Burden" by Rudyard Kipling is a deeply unsettling colonially-minded poem that relishes in its own racism. The poem addresses white men, who the speaker sees as being superior, and tells them that it's their responsibility to travel to the Philippines (although the location is never stated explicitly).
